Dear Danell,

I knew this was not far off, but I somehow hoped it wouldn't quite come. It has been truly a pleasure to have you as part of the School and to have been welcomed into your classes. I have enjoyed the humour, the energy and the warmth of connection that you so clearly give. It's very special to experience and the children in your next school will be very lucky to have you join them.

I look forward to saying that in person at some stage in the next few weeks, but in the meantime you have my admiration as a teacher, and my sincerest thanks for all that you've given the boys and girls - and, of course, to the first Junior School girls - in your care.

With my regret, my regards and my very best wishes for all that lies ahead.

Justin.
